

CLUB MANAGERS' ASSOCIATION AUSTRALIA

Country Club Managers' Conference

Tuesday 7th to Thursday 9th May, 2024
Bathurst RSL Club

In its 10th year, the Conference moves to the CMAA Mid State Zone at the Bathurst RSL Club.

This conference is a MUST attend event! The CMAA's new 'Working with the Registered & Licensed Clubs Award (2020)' course will be held on Tuesday 7th May at the Club prior to the Conference proper, for those regional delegates wanting to take advantage of their time out of the office to also attend a premium CMAA course. Separate cost & registration details apply.

The Conference program features an array of topical & interactive sessions that will assist club managers with insights & strategies to be able to better cope with the challenges that face them.

Designed to assist Club management personnel to understand, navigate & work with the RLC Award, this full day course will help all levels of Club personnel who are responsible for the application of Award terms & conditions in the workplace.

Being a Modern Award, it is subject to many variations as reviews occur frequently. Payroll systems are updated with such variations & although accurate, do not help managers to really understand and apply Award conditions accurately.

Course content includes:

- An introduction to, & brief history of the R&LC Award (2020)
- An understanding of the National Employment Standards, the Fair Work Act (2009) & the industrial relations foundation of the Modern Award
- Why do managers need to understand the Award & what may happen when Award conditions are misinterpreted?
- To navigate, interpret & apply conditions as listed in Parts 1 to 9 and Schedules A to G of the Award
- Understand the unique peculiarities & how working with the Award will impact rosters, staff management & labour costs in your Club
- Why accurate interpretation of the Award influences staff morale
- How to keep up to date with changes to the Award & where to find further information.

Presented by CMAA this high impact course is designed to give all managers the confidence, & necessary tools to be able to apply the provisions & flexibility of the Award in their clubs.

To register for this course prior to the Conference go to www.cmaa.asn.au click on the Professional Development icon & select the Country Club Managers Conference tile, register for the Conference & then the 'Working with the Registered & Licensed Clubs Award (2020)' course. Separate cost & registration for the course apply.

9:05am to 9:50am	'From bedroom to boardroom® – it's all about performance!' Keynote Speaker: Jackie Furey From the moment we open our eyes in the morning our lives are all about performances. But whom are we performing for, & why? This presentation shows how to focus on what matters. Keep your energy for what really matters – learn to stay away from human energy thieves & their friends! Give a performance to be remembered for & get the results you want from life.
9:50am	Morning Tea
10:10am to 11:10am	Industry Issues Forum A mainstay of the Country Managers Conference, this session features a panel of senior club managers discussing the current legislative environment facing the industry. Topics range from gaming, alcohol, noise and law updates. The panel will also address other matters that affect country managers particularly, including staffing, food chain supply, & environmental issues & more.
11:20am to 12:20pm	The CEO as the Company Secretary & the Do's & Don'ts of conducting board meetings - Warren Tapp, Warren Tapp Club Governance Ongoing governance issues in clubs leads us again to the relationship between the CEO & the Board. This session moderated by Warren Tapp of Club Governance & a panel of CEOs will address the role & powers of the CEO as the club's Company Secretary and insights into the Dos and Don'ts of conducting board meetings.
12:20pm	Lunch
1pm to 1:50pm	Café Design The rise of the café as an integral component of a club's catering portfolio is due to a range of influences which, when combined, can make a significant contribution to a club's profitability. This session will highlight café design trends, café friendly kitchen equipment, café food menu styling & café service styles, as well as club case studies.
2pm to 2:50pm	Digital Marketing & Club Promotion Trends Since COVID many clubs have rationalised their AEMP offering. The challenge now becomes on how to better engage & retain & entertain customers so that visitation & spend is not affected as a result of the AEMP rationalisation. So, what's out there that clubs & pubs are doing to get their fair share & some? This session will highlight trends in digital marketing, useability & costs as well as case studies where measurable gains have been made by embracing a digital marketing strategy.
2:50pm	Afternoon Tea
3:10pm to 4pm	Leading from the field UP! Shane Richardson has led Rugby League teams on and off the field in the UK and Australia for decades. Taking all aspects of sports administration to new heights, cultures and ways of thinking, Shane is still actively involved in sports management and consulting particularly with his greatest love; Rugby League. Shane will share his journey of the highs and lows, what he has learnt and how through leadership and beliefs, you can be and have a winning team, both on and off the field!
